Omaha Votes Lazlo's Brewery & Grill Best Microbrewery

OMAHA – Lazlo's Brewery & Grill has been selected for the 2010 Best of Omaha Award in the "Best Microbrewery" category.

Operated by Omaha Magazine, the Best of Omaha contest winners are selected by the public for being the best business' and services offered in Omaha.

Lazlo's Brewery & Grill is the first and oldest brewpub in Nebraska. The West Omaha location opened on October 2, 2006. The microbrewery serves an average of 23 gallons of house-brewed Emphyrean ales each day. The most popular beer styles are Chaco Canyon Honey Gold, Better World Wheat and Burning Skye Scottish Ale.

The philosophy at Lazlo's Brewery & Grill is about quality products and excellent service. This is achieved through an in-depth employee training program, from-scratch recipes and fresh ingredients.

More than 16,000 voters participated in this year's online balloting. The results are published in the Jan/Feb 2010 issue of Omaha Magazine and is made viewable online at <http://readonlinenow.com/>.
